INCREASE FEE ON AUTOMOBILES

Passage of Act Marks First Accomplishment on Road Legislation

PROVIDES 12-CT. LEVY

Substitute for Ozlin Bill is Expected to Smooth Out Differences Now Existing in House of Delegates.

Passage by the House of Delegates yesterday of the measure designed to increase the automobile license tax from 40 to 60 cents on the horse power, marks the first real accomplishment in either branch of the Legislature looking to the provision of State funds to meet the Federal appropriations for highways

The 50 per cent increase over the old rate, provided for in the bill which the House has approved, will be devoted to construction of roads embraced in the State highway system while the funds realized under the existing rate of 40 cents on the horse power still will be used for maintenance only.

The period during which one-third of the automobile license tax is to be used in the construction of the State highways extends to December 31, 1922, after which time all fund derived in this manner will revert to maintenance only, as is provided under the existing law.

The companion measure for grading road revenue probably will be passed by the House early next week.

The bill now pending before the body provides a straight additional levy of 12 cents on the $100 worth of general property to be made for the purpose of constructing State highways only. When the measure comes up next week, however the Ozlin bill which dedicates two-thirds of the fund thus derived to State highways, leaving one-third to be apportioned to county roads, under an appropriations bill, will be offered as a substitute. He has assurance that there will be no light on this substitute and that it will pass as he has had it framed.

MACHINISTS STRIKE

Union Demands $1 an Hour and Abotion of Bonus System

Akron, Ohio, Aug. 23.—Union machinists in Akron went on strike yesterday asking a 44 hour week and wage increases to $1 an hour, second and third shift men to work 40 hours a week and draw pay for 44 hours. Other demands include a scale of 64 cents an hour for helpers and abolition of bonus and premium systems.

Union leaders claim 3000 men will be affected and that machine work in 24 factories practically will cease Manufacturers assert that less than half that number will obey the strike order.

The International Harvester Company, largest employer of skilled machinists here, is not affected, an agreement having been reached at that shop recently. Other employers, it is said, ignored union demands.

OFFERING BABIES FOR SALE

Girl Quoted at 500 Marks in Want Column of German Paper

Philadelphia, Aug. 23.—Children are advertised for sale in the German newspapers, according to Sister Henriette de Matringe Arendt, formerly a police assistant, writing in the Leipzige Volkszeitung and quoted in official advices received here.

"About 1,500,000 German men have fallen in the war and about 500,000 German women and children have died of underfeeding during the four years of the wa," she writes."The birth rate is steadily decreasing and one would think that the German Empire would take the most active interest in bestowing the greatest care upon mothers and children.

"Just take a glance at the advertisement column of our daily papers, especially the Berliner Lokal Anzeiger and the Berliner Morgen Post, in which children are offered, not only as gifts, but also, quite shamelessly, for sale.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY NOTES

General and Personal and Real Estate Activity

J. M Ernst of Washington has purchased the new home of E. B. Van Every, of Arlington.

Mr. McDonald has recently finished a fine bungalow on Lloyd Avenue, Del Ray.

Mr. Kline is also building a fine hollow tile bungalow in the same locality.

Frank G. Campbell, president of the Alexandria County Civic Association is the author of a letter addressed to the citizens of the county protesting against signs and bill-boards on the highways.

The Methodist Church of Del Ray held a lawn party on last Monday evening on the lawn near the church, which was largely attended.

Lt. L. A. Quinn recently returned to his home in Clarendon, after nineteen months service in France.

Henry N. Clarke, jr., is another of the country's heroes who has just returned from over seas. He resides on Westover Street, Clarendon.

Lieut. Chaster C. Hough of Clarendon will sail shortly from New York for Brest, with the U. S. Engineers.

Rev. Charles P. Pyland, Mrs. Ernest Wilt, Mrs. R. P. Hough, Mrs. A. S. Woodland, B. B. McNeely and Mrs. B. F. Baldwin were the delegates of the Clarendon Baptist Church, who attended the Baptist Association held in North Fork, Va., Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. A. E. Smith, pastor of the Church of Christ (Disciples) at Ballston, who leaves shortly for Illinois has sold his home on Clarendon avenue, Clarendon, to Joseph F. Robinson, of Washington.

The "Gospel feast and contest rally" at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Arlington, held last Sunday for the purpose of raising funds for a new furnace, netted the church $823.42. Sermons were preached by the pastor, Rev. James E. Green; Rev. J. W. Riley, and Rev. Daniel Washington, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Washington. The singing of the Church choir, which was present throughout the services, was pleasing.

FIVE BANDITS KILLED

San Antonio, Aug. 23.—The American troops will be kept in Mexico several days after the bandits are captured or routed, according to belief at military headquarters here.

That much time at least will be required to withdraw the column properly.

A telegram was received today from Maj. Gen. Joseph T. Dickman commander of the Southern Department, stating he expected to leave Marfa at noon tomorrow unless the situation became more seriously then. He will visit Del Rio and several other border towns before returning here.

It was pointed out at the Southern Department, headquarters that five of the bandits have been slain and eight suspects held. The army reports say that four escaped when the cavalry stormed the abode hut last night and killed four men. This would make the total number of bandits accounted for seventeen. There were twenty in the gang that held Lieuts. Peterson and Davis, the ransomed aviators, according to belief of the latter. Chief Rentario, however, claimed to have a following of sixty.

WATER CARNIVAL BY O. D. BOAT CLUB

Large Number of Guests Are in Attendance This Afternoon

PROGRAM OF 12 EVENTS

O. D. Club Will Give Dance At Club House Tonight Which Will Bring Festivities to a Close

The Old Dominion Boat Club this afternoon is holding a water carnival. A large crowd is in attendance. Long before the hour set for the starting of the event the club house was packed with spectators. In addition to those at its clubhouse to see the affair, hundreds are gathered around the various wharves in close proximity to the clubbhouse.

A total of twelve events will take place and including races, tilting, high diving, etc. All of the participants in the race for some time past have been preparing for the different events.

The affair will be concluded tonight with a dance which will be given at the clubhouse. A large number of invitations have been issued and it is expected that the dance will be largely patronized.

The clubhouse of the Old Dominion has been fitted up in splendid shape and today the visitors were greatly pleased at the wonderful transformation it has undergone recently.

DIES WHILE VISITING HERE

Edward Wine Christian, of Mobile, Ala., Dies at Home of Sister

Edward Wine Christian, seventy-two years old, a resident of Mobile, Ala., died shortly after 10 o'clock last night at the residence of his sister, Mrs. P. J. Dempsey, whom he was visiting.

The deceased had been ill about two weeks.

Mr. Christian was born near Richmond, Va., and was a son of the late William A. Christian, who was a paymaster in the United States Navy. Mr. Christian during the war served in Col. Mosby's command. Mr. Christian is survived by three sons. His body will be shipped tonight to Mobile for burial.

CAPTAIN SLYE PUNISHED

Chapman A. Slye, master of the steamer E. Madison Hall, in the excursion business of the Potomac out of Washington, has had his license suspended for 30 days by Wright & Staunton, the board of steamboat inspectors of the Baltimore district. The charges were for not having the number of life preservers and lifeboats required by the certificate of inspection for excursion permit and for carrying more passenges than there were life presevers and floats to accommodate The finding of the inspectors makes Captain Slye amenable to two fines of $500 each.

FOUR KILLED IN CRASH

Husband, Wife, Nephew and Niece Auto Accident Victims

Albany, Aug. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kemmerer, of East Greenbush, and their nephew and niece, George and Dorothea Breese, of Schnectady, were killed Tuesday night when their automobile was struck by an Albany-bound Schentady car about midway between the two cities.

The automobile, also Albany-bound, attempted to cross the track in front of the car and was hit with tremendous force. Fire broke out in the wreckage.

Mr. Kemmerer was foreman of the farm of Sheriff Puddington Sharpe, of Rensselaer county.

ASK 5-DAY WEEK WITH RAISE

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 23.—Anthracite miners yesterday declared for the check-off, a six-hour work day, five days a week and an increase of 60 per cent in wages. The tridistrict convention in session to formulate the demands of the miners adopted the report of the scale committee.

They also demand a closed shop.

TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

Physicians Say Senator Martin Will Be Able to Return to Congress This Fall

Senator Thomas S. Martin, minority leader in the United States Senate, has been assured by his physician that he should be able to get back to his post in Washington some time this fall.

This is news brought to Richmond by W. T. Reed, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, who went last Saturday to see the senior Senator at the hospital in Charlottesville, where he is under treatment.

Mr. Reed says the doctors declare that no complications have set in in the case of Senator Martin, and that he is looking much better and very cheerful. The prysicians, he declares, see no reason why he should not fully recover within a short while.

Senator Martin will leave the hospital for his home near Charlottesville within ten days. He is at the hospital because he can secure more satisfactory treatment there.

WILSON URGES SUFFRAGE

Sends Message to Senate and House Presiding Officers Requesting Action

Richmond, Aug. 23.—Stock in the final ratification of the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the Federal Constitution rose skyward in Virginia yesterday, when the President of the United States urged the General assembly to take action.

In the Senate the plea of the President was received in dignified silence The gallery held few listeners, and they had begun to yawn and glance at their wrists to ascertain if it was not time for lunch. Senators were discussing the length of the week-end they should take.

Without comment the message from the nation's chief was referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

But in the House the suffrage market took a sudden bound upward. Delegates relaxed in mind from the strain of argument on a constitutional point and listened with a holiday look on their faces while Clerk John W. Williams read the President's pressing plea.

A suffragist in the gallery rose and gave noisy vent to her feelings Others not less enthusiastic than she, had sweet visions of political ascendancy and applauded wildly after the music of Mr. Williams' words had died down. The delegates joined with them.

The President's telegram was sent to Lieutenant-Governor B. Frank Buchanan, president of the Senate, and to Speaker Harry Houston, of the action which the Legislature of my House and read as follows:

"May I not take the liberty of expressing my profound interest in the action which is the Legislature of my native State is to take in the matter of the suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the United States. It seems to me of profound importance to our country that this amendment should be adopted and I venture to urge its adoption upon the Legislature with the utmost respect and with the greatest earnestness."

National Democratic Chairman Homer S. Cummings added his plea to that of the President.

The Governor has the amendment and probably will submit it at this

BONES OF PATRON SAINT

Found by Australian Engineers in Palestine and May be Sent to England

London, Aug. 23.—Australian engineers in Palestine have unearthed what antiquarians and historians declare are the remains of St. George, England's patron saint, according to a dispatch from Melbourne. It is suggested to bring the casket with the historic bones to London for interment in the Westminster Abbey.

Immediately after seeing the dispatch, a Universal Service correspondent called upon Canon Chalers, of the Abbey, to convey to him what seemed joyous tidings. Here is the canon's answer:

"I don't care a 'tuppence' for his bones. There's only room enough for six more famous persons in the Abbey and they must be created, so whats the use of bringing St. George?"

SAMUEL G. BRENT ELECTED JUDGE

Is Now Filling Unexpired Term of The Late J. B. T. Thornton

ON BENCH ONE YEAR

Assumed Duties as Judge August 31, 1918—Appointment Gave General Satisfaction.

Judge Samuel G. Brent, of this city, has been elected judge of the sixteenth judicial circuit by the State Senate.

The election of Judge Brent, who is now serving on the bench, was made Thursday.

His election is to fill the unexpired term caused by the death of Judge J. B. T. Thorton, of Manassas, Prince William county.

Folowing the death of Judge Thorton Governor Westmoreland Davis appointed Mr. Brent as judge to fill the unexpired term pending his election by the legislature.

The appointment was made August 29, 1918, and Judge Brent qualified August 31, 1918. At the close of the present month he, therefore, will have served as judge for a period of one year.

The services of Judge Brent on the bench have met with general satisfaction not only by the lawyers of this judicial circuit but by all who have business in the courts.

Judge Brent prior to his election to the bench served as commonwealth's attorney for this city which position he held since 1902.

The Senate voted, without dissent for the following other judges: Clifton A. Woodrun, for Corporation Court of Reanoke; E. Walton Brown. Corpration Court of Danville; Hughes Dillard, Seventh Judicial Circuit.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS

Delegates Refuse to Let Down Bars For Schools

Richmond, Va., Aug. 23.—The refusal of the house by a vote which left no doubt as to its real position in the matter, to concur in the senate amendment to a joint resolution under which permission would be given for consideration at the special session of a measure to provide increased pay for teachers in the public schools.

The avalanche of noes under which an amendment offered by Delegate William A. Anderson, the effect of which would have been to double the existing automobile license tax, went down to defeat.

It is generall beleved that the next sesson of the General Assembly can deal with the school matter much better and that would be ample time in which to act. It would be a serious mistake to throw down the bars to any other legislation than that already agreed upon it is alleged by many.

"I don't believe ten members of this House would have signed the call for the special session". one member declar, "if they had thought we would discuss any other than road problems That is the real issue before us. I might say that I had already prepared school bills, but found insuperable objections to having them considered.'

Delegate Lindsey Gordon of Louisa declared himself in favor only of legislation to meet the Federal appropriations.

IN FEW INCHES OF LIBERTY

Plotter's Unguarded Remark Discloses Scheme When on Eve of Success

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 23.—The nearly successful effort of Irvin Wilcher, held for alleged forgery, and Lee White, convicted of house breaking, to saw their way from the city jail here has just been disclosed.

The effort was blocked by J. Maurice Tyree, son of City Sergeant Tyree, when he heard one of the men tell the other that when they got out of he cell they would take his revolver from him.

Separating the prisoners the deputy sergeant the next day got White to talk, and he then disclosed the fact that Wilcher had a saw, which he had improvsed from a steel stap taken from the insde of a soldier's legging.

The stay was fashioned into a rude saw by means of chopping it with a pocket knife, and with it the pair of prisoners had all but sawed out of a "burglar-proof" cell. Following that, their plan was to overpower the deputy jailer and make their escape.

HANGS HIMSELF WITH WIRE

Lynchburg Molder, Depressed by ill Health, Takes His Own Life

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 23.—Jacob M. Irvin, aged 35 and a molder by trade, committed suicide in his home Thursday morning by hanging himself with a small wire. He was with his wife on the veranda of the home, when he went indoors. A few minutes later Mrs. Irvin missed him, and found him strangled to death in a closet.

He had twisted a small wire around his neck, fastened it to a hook above him and strangled himself by his own weight. He had been in ill health for some months, and this is thought to have been the cause of his act.

IN MEMORIAM

GORHAM—In sad but loving remembrance of dear Melvin who departed this life seven weeks ago.

Sleep on dear Melvin and take your rest,
God call you home, he knew best,
He saw your suffering here was great,
And open wide the golden gate.
The flowers we place upon your gave
May wither and decay,
But love for him who sleep beneath
Will never fade away.

PASSING OF THE CLOUD

Some anxiety has been manifested in Alexandria during the past forty-eight hours consequent of a report that certain workmen at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation had walked out as the result of some issue between them and the officials at the plant. As is generally the case, the report as it spread gained bulk and impetus, it being said by some that the trouble might culminate in a wholesale strike, which would bring operations at this new industry to a standstill.

It will be a relief to know that the entire matter has been misapprehended, and that the issue was settled almost as soon as it was born. The men who laid off for a brief time went to work this morning as usual.

While most of the world is suffering from strikes, it is pleasant to note that such movements in the southern country are comparatively few and of short duration. A few days ago numbers of men employed by railway companies hereabouts stopped work pending the settlement of some issues with their employers. After a short deliberation the men decided to resume their labors and await the settlement of the trouble by arbitration. The mechanics at the shipyard have, very sensibly, followed their example.

Violence seldom settles our aims or desires. There is a way to do all things, and no people realize this better than a large percentage of working men.

The following from holy writ is always applicable. Some who have their attention called to it may not have had the interest to read it where it first occurs, but it is incorporated in the ritual of one of the most prominent orders:

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments.

These words are made applicable to an ancient labor organization. They are equally so to those of our day.

DISEASED IMAGINATION

Senator McCormick sees the United States obliged to send millions of its sons to Europe, Asia, Africa and the islands of the sea to aid tyrants in riveting their chains upon liberty-loving subjects. If this is not plain falsification, it calls for treatment by an alienist. He says:

"Look at the long borders of these subject peoples; count the thousands of miles they march with those of China and Russia. They touch upon the Russian pamirs and the Russian Caucasus. If ever those subject peoples rise and the Chinese or the Russians strike hands with them, that will constitute 'external aggression' under the terms of the covenant of the League of Nations. Then our young men must march by thousands to drive the invader back from the Yalu, the Ganges, the Tigris or the Euphrates."

The Philadelphia Inquirer in commenting upon this dream says if the subjects of England, France or Japan rise against their masters, that will be internal aggression, and will not concern the League of Nations. But if China or Russia should take advantage of the insurrection to attack England, France or Japan, then there would be external aggression, and the League of Nations would intervene to prevent them from making war, and not to aid England, France or Japan in suppressing insurrection. Mr. McCormick may have been to careless to notice that he was omitting the first link in his chain, or he may have omitted it knowingly because it would spoil his argument.

Article X pledges the members of the League to respect and preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the League. It does not pledge them to go to the succor of any member of the League that happens to be at war, but to prevent one member from attacking another. If Russia or China should attack England or Japan, all the members of the League would be equally concerned in applying preventive measures."

A PERTINENT QUESTION

The Baltimore News says it would like to have the views of wage earners themselves in answer to a charge that is now often heard. In brief, the charge is that, with higher wages, with insistent need of production in order to reduce the cost of living, in many instances the individual is doing less work, working fewer days, producing actually less than he accomplished at a lower wage. In other words, that higher pay has resulted in absolutely lowering production.

Our contemporary says, Is "the charge true? If so, what is the remedy?

"The public is greatly confused at present by happenings in the labor world. A case in point is the strike at Sparrows Point, where about 5000 men have been out, losing their wages and greatly hampering essential work. As far as the public is able to judge from the conflicting statements made, one of the chief troubles was the failure of a union man to pay his union dues. It is also said that the strike was called contrary to the orders of union officials; that the union could not control its own members. In consequence, out of what seems to have been an utterly trivial matter thousand of dollars of wages were lost and a great industry made idle.

"It is admitted that the root of the trouble in the labor world is the high cost of living, causing dissatisfaction and unrest. But the outstanding fact is that higher wages cannot continue unless there is increased production, and this brings us back to the question that labor should be keenly concerned in having fairly answered.

"Is labor loafing on the job? Are the repeated charges heard from contractors, architects, manufacturers and others that the spirit of unrest has so interfered with production as to menace the prosperity of the nation based on fact?"

Also $5,000 Fine in Bill Which House Unanimously Passes

Without amendment, and with practically no oposition, the House yesterday voted to amend the Lever food control act to extend its provisions to include clothing, containers of food feed or fertilizers, fuel oil, and implements used in production of necessities, and to penalize profiteers by a $5,000 fine or two years' imprisonment.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described as Torture Relieved by Black-Draught

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would catch me, and I got so I castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be decribed as torture.

I sent and bought Theford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theford's Black-Draught."

Whitlock, Mentioned for Place, Said to Prefer Return to Belgium

Thomas Nelson Page, of Virginia, has formally resigned as Ambassador to Italy, it was announced yesterday at the State Department. After his return from Italy several months ago Mr. Page said he would resign, but so far as could be learned yesterday his successor has not been selected.

Brand Whitlock, Minister to Belgium, who has been mentioned for the post at Rome, called to see the President yesterday. He, however, declined to discuss the possibility of his going to Rome. His friends have said, however, that he preferred to return to Brussels in the event the post there was raised to an embassy, as provided for in a bill now pending in Congress.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.

NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH

William Miller, Alleged to Have Resisted Arrest, Dies in Virginia Hospital

Richmond, Aug. 23.—William Miller, colored, 35 years old, was shot Thursday morning and died shortly after reaching Vigimia Hospital, when he is alleged to have resisted arrest and attempted to assault with a lump of coal Policeman P. R. Akers.

Miller was being placed under arrest, it was said, when he attempted to sell a cow to a butcher at First Market, which the policeman had reason to believe was stolen property. The negro resisted, the officer states, and ran into the coalyard of S. H. Hawes and Co., on Cary Street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, and was in the act of throwing a lump of coal at the officer when the shot was fired.

The negro was taken to Virginia Hospital in a patrol wagon and died a few minutes later.

It developed that the cow was the property of O. R. Heinze, Route 4, Mechanicsville Turnpike.

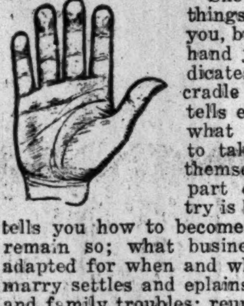
Madam Nevada

Gifted Palmist and Clairvoyant



She does not tell things to please you, but reads your hand just as it indicates, from the cradle to the grave; tells every person what steps in life to take to better themselves; what part of the country is best for them tells you how to become healthy remain so; what business you are adapted for when and whom you will marry settles and eplains love affairs and family troubles; reunites the separated. Does everything seem to go wrong and has fortune never smiled upon you? Has your life been empty? Do not despair as you can yet learn the true road to success and happiness for both await you if you will only know how when and where to find them which will be revealed to you. She tells you what you have done and what you are doing now and what you are going to do. All told without asking a single question. She has helped others, why not you?

No matter what may be your ambition, hope or fears, she guarantees to help you. Are you in trouble? Do you find the one you have bestowed your trust and affection upon acting cool and indifferent toward you? She wil remove all obstacles and tell how to win and hold the one you desire. She guarantees satisfaction or no charge.

CAR HITS "MOVIE" WAGON

Twenty-six Hurt, Many of Whom Are Women

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23.—Twenty-six persons were injured yesterday, several of them very seriously, when a Van Nuys electric car crashed into a sight-seeing bus carrying 30 motion picture actors. A number of injured were women.

MISSING IN CLOUD BURST

Uniontown, Pa., Aug. 23.—Between 50 and 60 acres of land were flooded by a cloudburst in the Connellsville Coke region near here yesterday morning. Buildings were swept away, mines flooded, trees uprooted and railroad tracks washed out. Wires are down and early reports said a number of persons were missing, believed to have been drowned. The plant of the Republic Lumber Company, at Herbert, was struck by lightning and burned. The loss is estimated at more than $100,000.

Water at Herbert reached a depth of six to eight feet and prevented firemen from Uniontown and Connellsville from fighting the lumber yard fire. A later report from Herbert said two families which lived near the lumber plant are missing. A number of employees also could not be located after the cloudburst.

At Republic, near here, the freight station was wrecked and its contents washed away by the flood. Seventy-five feet of brick road was washed out and mines and boilers of the Republic Iron and Steel plant flooded.

At New Salem, Mrs. Goldie Brady, chief operator of the Tri-State Telephone Company, was badly shocked when lightning struck a wire.

Three thousand barrels of beer were carried away by the flood which wrecked the Johnson brewery at New Salem and floated down the Monongahela river.

At Fairbanks a department store and a small building were washed away and carried down Dunlap's creek.

More than 1000 cellars were flooded in Uniontown.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 2 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except, further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908.

ELECTON NOTICE

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court house of said city on Wednesday, July 9th, 1919. Present. Hon. Samuel G. Brent, Judge.

In the matter of the petition of electors for a change in the form of government for the city of Alexandria, Virginia, under the act of the General Assembly, approved March 20, 1916.

And this day again came the petitioners and again presented their petitions prepared and executed in due form of law, of electors of the City of Alexandria, equal in number to at least ten per cent. of those qualified to vote at the last preceding general election, at which a mayor or council was elected, and specifying in said petitions the particular form of government permitted under an act of the General Assembly approved March 20, 1916, as amended, and which form they wish to adopt, including the number of councilmen, namely five, to be elected at large and to serve without compensation, and asking that an election be held, as provided in said act; and said petition being in all respects in conformity with the provisions and requirements of said act.

It is therefore ordered that E. E. Downham, Richard E. Sweeney, and T. A. Moore, or their successors in office comprising the Electoral board of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, be, and they are hereby directed to take such steps and prepare such means as may be necessary to submit to the qualified voters of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, at an election which said electoral board is hereby directed to hold on the 23rd day of September, 1919, for determination of the question of whether said proposed change in the form of government of the City of Alexandria, shall be adopted or not.

Said election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by law for the conduct of regular election, and by the regular election officers of said city.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, for at least thirty days prior to said election and said electoral board is further directed to give all due publicity to said election, that under the law they are required to give of regular elections.

And the Clerk of this Court is directed to transmit a copy of this order to each member of the electoral board.

FOOD DEALER FOUND GUILTY.

Columbus, Ohio, Court Fixes Maximum Fine of $500

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 23.—Theodore Leonard, Jr., of Columbus, one of the 40 food dealers arrested last week by the State of Ohio on charges of violating the Smith cold storage law by holding meats in cold storage longer than the time limit set by the law, was found guilty on one count in Municipal Court here yesterday and was given the maximum sentence of a fine of $500 and costs.

The Leonard case is the first of 40 to come to trial and will be made a test case. Attorneys for Leonard said the case would be appealed immediately and would be rushed through to the Ohio Supreme Court as quickly as possible.

The charge upon which Leonard was found guilty was that he kept poultry in cold storage more than 10 months, the time limit set by the Smith law.

DANGERS OF A COLD

Alexandria People Will Do Well to Heed Them

Many bad cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache. headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Alexandria resident's example:

C. E. Davis, fireman, truck and engine company No. 1, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a good many years and they have always given me wonderful relief. My trouble has been brought on by being out in all kinds of weather and catching colds which settle in my kidneys. Then my back gets sore and weak and I can hardly get around. The kidney secretions will pass irregularly and make me get up often at night. However. I find I can rely on Doan's Kidney Pills to give me the desired relief. My kidneys have never been in bad condition since I started using Doan's Kidney Pills for those attacks."

GRAND THEATRE

Are all women human phonographs? Martin Stafford thought so. But who could blame him? He was constantly besieged by a bevy of beautiful girls, school chums of his darling sister, who never ceased in her efforts to force the attentions of her loving brother upon her colleagues

Perhaps it was a case of too much sweetness for Martin. At any rate he preferred the silent contrast of the backwoods, the winding roads beside the moss lined creeks, until —well, until he saw Anita King as a dairy maid. Then he experienced a suden change of heart, but not until he had been mistaken for an auto bandit and not until he discovered that his supposed milk-maid was none other than his sister's dearest friend.

Its romance from beginning to end at the Grand Theatre staring beautiful Anita King. Also Larry Seman in the "Star Boarder," his best yet

To Our Subscribers and the Public

WE HAVE RECENTLY SUBMITTED to the State Corporation Commission a petition for increased rates throughout Virginia. These rates, if authorized, will yield approximately six per cent. on our actual investment

LIKE ALL OTHER INDUSTRIES, we have been seriously affected by increased costs. During the year 1918 this Company not only failed to earn its interest and dividend charges; it did not earn enough to pay its operating expenses.

WE DO NOT ASK FOR EXORBITANT PROFITS. We recognize our obligation, as a public utility, to give the public good service at reasonable charges.

WE ARE STRIVING to give, but to do so we must have a reasonable return on our investment. Without it we cannot provide the many features of property and personnel that make good service; nor can we secure the new capital necessary to keep pace with the growth of your community.

WE ARE SUBMITTING to the State Corporation Commission all the facts and figures pertaining to our operations in Virginia in order that it may make a thorough investigation.

WE HAVE NOTHING TO CONCEAL. We are anxious that our patrons and the public generally should know the situation confronting us, because we believe that with a knowledge of these facts you will endorse our efforts to earn a reasonable return. In this way only can we fulfill completely our obligations to those we serve.
